Paris, 4 May 2017 – JCDecaux has acknowledged today's order, in which the Administrative Court upheld the tender process awarding the "Vélib 2" contract to the "Smoovento" partnership. In this surprising order, the judge stating pursuant to the urgent proceeding (référé) exempted both the public authority and the company taking over the contract from testifying on compliance with labour laws governing the transfer of employees involved to the new contract holder. Due to the resulting insecurity for all involved employees, the JCDecaux/RATP/SNCF partnership has lodged an appeal before the Supreme Administrative Court (Conseil d'Etat), which will provide the final ruling on this matter of principle.
